

Beta testers come find the errors

2007-08-23 18:46:19 by nextgen

We need beta testers for the NGNuke CMS as we reach a point to we now feel we are ready to release a beta for the public o touch. So if anyone could spare their time to help us get the cms release ready come on over to the www.ngnuke.com and register. We do not expect you to be on all the time but do need testers to help when they can, So please visit and register to test the updated ngnuke cms please.
