Hebrew Translation available [btw: Nuke bridges time, cultures, and distance - let us celebrate this great community]

yesterday we announced the IranNuke.com-community. Well - we have a global community. hebrew Language Pack for PHP-Nuke 7.xx was created by the devs on israelim.org :: in a new article the Hebrew Language Pack for PHP-Nuke 7.xx was announced.

IsraelDeveloper"Hebrew Language to download here for your site you can have a second language in your site! this is a full pack of this language..."

please travel over to israelim.org and get your lang-file now!

Nuke, it is a synonym for a globalwork: Bridging Distance, Culture & Time! the PHPNuke-project has reached a critical mass, now it functions itself as a giant decentralized mechanism for generating and distributing knowledge. Some of the globally dispersed ressources are gathered together - eg at like warp-speed.de
